Title: China and Russia: War and Deglobalization

Outline:

- Today, events are changing faster than our ability to understand them. As a result, the world is more dangerous than we think.
- Both Russia and China are threatening to use nuclear weapons. Deterrence is breaking down.
- China and Russia are forming a durable partnership. Beijing fully supports Putin's war on Ukraine.
- China is trying to take down the current international system and replace it with worldwide Chinese rule.
- The world is headed into recession and will deglobalize.
- When countries deglobalize, the threshold for the use of force dramatically drops.

Action Items:

- Sell Chinese stocks and mutual funds including Chinese stocks.
- Do not buy China-made products.
- Demand websites include COOL, country-of-origin labeling.
- Ask candidates where they stand on China.
