Speaker: Lee, Sen. Mike – Elected in 2010 as Utah's 16th Senator, Mike Lee has spent his career defending the basic liberties of Americans as a tireless advocate for our founding constitutional principles.

Senator Lee graduated from Brigham Young University with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science and served as BYU's Student Body President in his senior year. He graduated from BYU's Law School in 1997 and went on to serve as law clerk to Judge Dee Benson of the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah, and then with future Supreme Court Justice Judge Samuel A. Alito, Jr. on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

He spent several years as an attorney with the law firm Sidley & Austin specializing in appellate and Supreme Court litigation, and then served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Salt Lake City arguing cases before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. He was Governor Jon Huntsman's General Counsel and was later honored to reunite with Justice Alito, now on the Supreme Court, for a one-year clerkship. He returned to private practice in 2007.

Today, Senator Lee fights to support constitutionally limited government, fiscal responsibility, individual liberty, and economic prosperity. He is a member of the Judiciary Committee, and serves as Chairman of the Antitrust, Competition Policy and Consumer Rights Subcommittee protecting business competition and personal freedom. He is the Chairman of the Water and Power Subcommittee of the Energy and Natural Resources Committee, serves on the Commerce Committee and the Joint Economic Committee, as well. In the 114th Congress, Lee also began his tenure as Chairman of the Senate Steering Committee.

Senator Lee is married to Sharon, and they have three children.
