

Eagle Council 51

Friday, 9/29/23

7:00 pm

Speaker: Holcomb, Colleen, JD – Colleen received her Bachelor’s degree in Political Science from Wellesley College, then her Juris Doctorate in Law, and a Master’s degree in Communications from Regent University.

She worked in the nonprofit sector for such organizations as the Flying Hospital International, the Christian Broadcasting Network, Operation Blessing, the Center for Law and Religious Freedom, and the Christian Legal Society, and most recently, before joining Holcomb Law, I served as the Executive Director of The Capitol Hill office of Eagle Forum, as the director of Eagle Forum’s Political Action Committee, and as Eagle Forum President.

Colleen is the author of “The Rise and Fall of Women’s Rights: Have Sexuality and Reproductive Freedom Forfeited Victory?” which was published in the Winter 2000 edition of William and Mary’s Journal of Women and the Law.

Title: Invocation