

Eagle Council Lobby Day 2023

Thursday, September 28th

How to find your Congressman or Senators

To find your Congressman, click here.

To find your Senator, click here.

If you already know who your elected officials are, you can Google their name to find their websites. Their official website will end in .gov.

Contacting your Congressman or Senators

Your elected official will have contact information on their websites. This can be found at the bottom of the website or through the menu.

Phone calls are typically the best way to reach their office. Call the number associated with their Washington, D.C. location.

What to say to the Scheduler

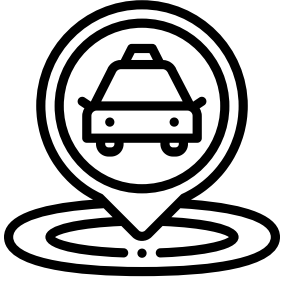

"Hi, my name is _____ and I live in Representative _____'s district/Senator _____'s state. I will be in town on September 28th for Eagle Council and would like to schedule a time to meet to talk about appropriations and upcoming legislative priorities. Is there a time available that day?"

If your elected official is conservative, invite them to the PAC Fundraiser:

"I would also like to invite the Congressman/woman/Senator to be my guest at the Eagle Forum PAC Fundraiser on the following Thursday night. Where may I email the invitation?"

Transportation to Your Meeting

If going by car, it is best to take an Uber.

If going by Metro:

Purchase Metro cards at entrance.

For House appointments:

Take the Yellow Line toward Mt. Vernon Square.

Get off at L'Efant Plaza.

You can take one of three lines to get off at the Capitol South Station- Orange toward New Carrollton, Silver toward Downtown Largo, or Blue toward Downtown Largo.

For Senate Appointments:

Take the Yellow Line toward Mt. Vernon Square.

Get off at Gallery Place.

Take the Red Line toward Glenmont.

Get off at Union Station.

Give yourself 45 minutes if going by Uber and at least one hour if going by Metro. You will need to wait in line to go through security and metal detectors in the Congressional buildings.

Questions

Please attend the Capitol Hill Briefing at the hotel at 8:30am. There you will receive information about the latest legislation moving through Congress.
