

Magan McCreary

Executive Assistant

Magan serves as Executive Assistant at the Election Integrity Network (EIN), supporting leadership and coalitions while contributing across operations, communications, Development initiatives, content creation, video production, and special projects. Her work advances EIN's mission to ensure fair, transparent, and secure elections nationwide and strengthens the organization's relationships and engagement.

Drawing on a strong administrative background in healthcare, veterinary services, and senior care—including records management, scheduling, data management, and regulatory compliance—Magan brings a detail-oriented, proactive approach to coordinating projects and streamlining processes. Her earlier volunteer work in Rhode Island, where she collected and organized election data, collaborated with officials, led public training events, and hosted an election integrity podcast, continues to fuel her commitment to EIN's nationwide collaborative efforts.
