

Eagle Council 54

Friday, 9/25/26

7:45 pm

Speaker: Laura Osnes is a two-time Tony Award nominee with leading credits across Broadway, television, film, and concert stages.

From a national search to Broadway. Laura Osnes rose to stardom after winning NBC's reality television competition "Grease: You're The One That I Want," earning the role of Sandy in the Broadway revival of Grease at the age of 21.

She went on to lead Broadway roles as Nellie Forbush in South Pacific, Hope Harcourt in Anything Goes, Bonnie Parker in Bonnie & Clyde (Tony Award nomination), Cinderella in Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella (Tony Award nomination), and Julia Trojan in Bandstand.

Her screen credits include five Hallmark Channel original movies — Christmas In Tahoe, Raise A Glass To Love, One Royal Holiday, A Homecoming For The Holidays, and In The Key Of Love — plus A Little Women's Christmas, Just In Time, and A Dash Of Christmas for Great American/PureFlix. Television appearances include Fosse/Verdon (FX), Dynasty (CW), and Elementary (CBS).

Her crystal-clear and powerful soprano regularly graces symphony halls and cabaret venues around the globe, including filmed performances with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Live from Lincoln Center (PBS), A Capitol Fourth (PBS), and The Kennedy Center Honors (CBS). Alongside Broadway cast recordings and two solo albums, Laura has released original music including her debut EP, "On The Other Side."

<https://lauraosnes.com/>

Title: A Salute to America 250!